Congratulations to one of DressageDaily's Equestrian Professionals, Marco Bernal for his recent Gold Medal Victories at the Central American and Caribbean Games. It couldn't have happened to a nicer guy and we know how hard you have worked for this accomplishment.

Be sure to keep track of the Alltech/FEI World Equestrian Games coverage on HorsesDaily.com. Today marks the 50 day countdown to the biggest historic event the United States and the beautiful state of Kentucky will be featuring.

On the home front, thank you, thank you, thank you to all for your thoughts, prayers, e-mails, and posts on my Facebook page following my June 26 four wheeler accident and recovery. I am doing great, and all my therapists say it's miraculous! In fact, JJ and I will be headed for New Jersey for the second weekend of competition as guests of the title sponsors Jeff and Shereen Fuqua of Collecting Gaits Farm! I am so excited!

Angela Barilar Prominent American Breeder Passes Away

Angela passed away on Saturday, July 31 after a short illness.

She discovered just four months ago she had stage four brain cancer and embraced the remainder of her life the way she has lived all along, with humor, love and her passion for her family, her horses and her farm.

Angela Barilar has always been a constant presence at Dressage at Devon Breeder Division where her quality horses and foals represented the American Breeder in action. Read More...

"Who Loves You Baby" - That's The Voice of Canadian Dressage

"Who Loves You Baby!" a voice yelled out from the stands as one of the Canadians entered the ring.

To those who had never heard that voice before there was a moment where heads turned to find where that strong proud voice came from. Yet, for the Canadians it was no surprise. Read More...

Marco Bernal Wins Dressage Team and Individual Gold Medals at Central American and Caribbean Games in Puerto Rico

The Central American and Caribbean Games may have been Farewell IV's first time competing at a show outside of the country, but it turned out to be an award-winning gold adventure for the Westphalian stallion and his owner, trainer and rider Colombian dressage rider Marco Bernal. Farewell IV and Bernal helped their team capture the Gold Medal in Puerto Rico and two days later the duo won the Individual Gold Medal.

Dressage Trainer Heather Bender Back From Brazil And A Selection Trial Of Her Own

With Gladstone just around the corner the Selection Trials are on every sport horse enthusiast's mind, but for Florida Dressage trainer Heather Bender "selection trials" are a quarterly event.

Bender is the United States trainer for Interagro Lusitanos of Brazil, and travels to the South American country four times a year to help select horses to present at the annual Lusitano CollectionTM International Horse Auction. Read More...

Health Tip - KAM - When the Belly Hurts the World Stops!

Many horses suffer from stress related digestive problems. Studies show over 50% of show and race horses have ulcers in their GI tract. When the proper acid-base balance of a horse's digestive tract is disturbed, gastric and/or intestinal ulcers may develop.

This increased intestinal permeability creates a pro-inflammatory state that may lead to food sensitivities, allergies, sore muscles and joints, impaired immune system function, colic, laminitis, and many other illnesses. Read More...
